

Around the Table Games

Conversation games for the whole family are perfect stocking stuffers. Think about being at the dinner table, the Family Talk game is a great way to get the conversation flowing and help bring families together. The questions cards attached to a clip that allows them to be taken along anywhere and played at anytime. So when the kids are visiting grandma or if you're in the car traveling, it's a great way to learn more about your family members. There are 6 award winning games in all, perfect for people of all ages. The Buddy Talk, Camp Talk, and Teen Talk were all created by kids and teens FOR kids and teens. Around the Table conversation games are portable, thought-provoking, and fun.

Purchase: Online at www.aroundthetablegames.com OR find a retailer near you on their website.