📅 June 23rd, 2008

A company called Around the Table Games (www.aroundthetablegames.com) has created a card game called Grandparent Talk. Full of questions like “What was the Biggest Fish You Ever Caught?” and “What was a Party Line?” and “What Type of Chores Did You Have Growing Up?”, this is one revealing game for Hip Grandmas to play with The Grand Ones. Those little ones will know so much more about you after a session of Grandparent Talk.
