

CONGRATULATIONS FAMILY TALK WINNERS - Dorothy Willmann and Kathy Ramspott are the Family Talk, Around the Table contest winners. Willman submitted, "What was the most embarrassing incident you endured when in grade school?" And, Ramspott submitted, "If you could only see one more sunset or sunrise, which would you choose?" Ramspott won first place and Willmann took second place. Pictured with the winners are Mike Kircher, owner of the Meramec Valley Current News Magazine and Beth Daniels creator of the Family Talk games.

Ramspott came into the Current News Magazine's office Dec. 19 to pick up her prize, a signed copy of the Grandparent's Talk, Around the Table game. After entering the contest Ramspott went to Solid Rock Kaffee Haus in Eureka and purchased several of the games for her son's family to enjoy during the Christmas holiday. "He has nine children so I bought several of them," she said smiling. "Now, we can play this one too."

Willman, an 88 year old grandma in Eureka, never expected to win the contest, but was thrilled that she could now try to connect with her teenage grandchildren and son who live with her. "I entered the contest because I'd actually thought about making a game similar to this years ago," she said. "Now, I can even add some of my own questions to it. It's going to be fun."

Willman also related how recently the MV Current News Magazine had reunited her with a longtime family friend. "We hadn't seen each other in years and then I saw his picture in your paper," she said happily. "I gave him a call and we've been talking ever since then."
