Around The Table Games - Review & Giveaway!

My family is big into games - whenever we get together we're always playing some sort of game. It's a great way to bring the family together in one place for some good fun. Anymore any conversation kind of games have been a hit in the family (well for most of us) so I was really excited to get my hands on the Around the Table Games.

We've had tons of fun with the Family Talk version of the game. Not only are these fun to sit down at the table and play with your family but they are easily taken in the car for long trips. They are on a ring and the cards are just flipped over for reading - very portable and easy to take care of. Some examples of the questions from Family Talk are: "Describe the house of your dreams. What are your Three Favorite Things To do? What is the most famous person you ever met?" All fun and thought provoking.

We also got the Buddy Talk which for us wasn't quite as fun but definitely geared for school aged children to play with questions such as: "Do you have a favorite outfit? What makes a GOOD friend? What's your favorite thing about summer break?" These are still good for parents to play with their children as well.

Get to know your family and friends with these fun, thought provoking games. Available in Family Talk 1 and 2, Buddy Talk, Teen Talk, Camp Talk, Grandparent Talk. Don't take my word on these games being good. Check out the awards they have won. "Family Talk and Grandparent Talk have received multiple awards, including a 2008 iParenting Media Outstanding Product Award, a Top 10 Puzzles & Logical Thinking Games from Dr. Toy's 100 Best Children's Products of 2008, the Grandkids Gift Guide 2008 Superproduct Award, the National Parenting Center 2008 Fall Seal of Approval and a Teachers' Choice for the Family Award 2009."

Find out more information at Around The Table Games, where to purchase and what's all available.

Win It! One Momma In Flip Flops<sup>2</sup> reader will win one of the Around The Table Games of your choice.

How awesome. We always try to have dinner as a family as much as possible and we always turn the TV off and talk. This would be perfect to keep at the table. I would have to say we would get family talk 1 or 2. Or both! LOL. Great games!

I would like to try the Buddy Talk. I personally think that talking at the dinner table is very important. Maybe this could get some of my daycare kiddos holding more conversations. It drives me nuts to hear someone say "Be quiet and eat your food!"
