

More Games, Gifts and Goodies Guide

The season's best toys and games

Kirsten Flourney

We went to the experts to create this year's holiday gift guide. Who better to judge toys and games than kids? Our reviewers put these toys to the test at home and school. Here's a list of the highest-scoring items (from 1 to 10), based on educational concepts, creativity, price, assembly and of course, the "fun" factor. We've got everything to spark your child's creativity, from arts, crafts and cooking, to educational toys and interactive computer games. Best of all, each toy won raves and is sure to delight your child.

		Description	Surprises	Parents Should Know	What the Kids Liked
	Family Talk Game 4 years + $12.95 Aroundthetablegames.com	Simply pick a card, ask the question and get a surprising glimpse into the hearts and minds of family members you thought you really knew.	It's fun learning about your children's views on different topics in everyday life. Your children will also be surprised to learn things about their parents.	Designed to be portable. You can play anywhere. Read over questions first, some may be too difficult for 4-year-olds.	"Mom I didn't know you went to preschool!" Dillon, age 4  Score: 10